IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MARCH 22, 2018

Mr. LOUDERMILK (for himself and Mr. CONNOLLY) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Oversight and Government Reform

A BILL

To require the establishment of Federal customer service standards, to improve the service and customer experience provided by Federal agencies, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE; TABLE OF CONTENTS.

4 (a) SHORT TITLE.—This Act may be cited as the 5 “Government Customer Service Accountability and Im-
6 provement Act of 2018”.

7 (b) TABLE OF CONTENTS.—The table of contents for 8 this Act is as follows:

See. 1. Short title; table of contents.
Sec. 2. Findings; sense of Congress.
Sec. 3. Definitions.
See. 4. Development of customer experience standards.
Sec. 5. Service Improvement and Accountability Unit Pilot Program.
Sec. 6. Effective date.

1 SEC. 2. FINDINGS; SENSE OF CONGRESS.

2 (a) FINDINGS.—The Congress finds the following:

3 (1) The Federal Government serves the people
4 of the United States and should seek to continually
5 improve public services.

6 (2) The people of the United States deserve a
7 Federal Government that provides efficient, effec-
8 tive, and high-quality services across multiple chan-
9 nels.

10 (3) Many agencies, offices, programs, and Fed-
11 eral employees provide excellent service to individ-
12 uals, however, many functions of the Federal Gov-
13 ernment do not provide the customer service experi-
14 ence that individuals have come to expect from the 15 private sector.

16 (4) The lack of Federal Government customer
17 service is an inveterate occurrence which has been 18 attempted to be addressed through the actions of 19 previous administrations including the Executive
20 Order 12862, “Setting Customer Service Stand-
21 ards,” signed September 11, 1993, by President
22 William J. Clinton and Executive Order 13571,

1 “Streamlining Service Delivery and Improving Cus-
2 tomer Service,” signed April 27, 2011, by President
3 Barack H. Obama.

4 (5) According to the 2016 American Customer
5 Satisfaction Index, the Federal Government ranks
6 among the bottom of all industries in the United
7 States in customer satisfaction.

8 (6) Providing quality services to individuals im-
9 proves the confidence of the people of the United 10 States in their Government. Such quality service is 11 a necessary factor for agencies to fulfill their specific 12 and clearly defined missions.

13 (7) Improving service to individuals requires
14 agencies to work across organizational boundaries,
15 leverage technology, collect and share standardized
16 data, and develop customer-centered mindsets and 17 service strategies.

18 (b) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of Con-
19 gress that all agencies should strive to provide high-qual-
20 ity, courteous, effective, and efficient services to the people
21 of the United States and seek to measure, collect, report,
22 and use metrics relating to the experience of individuals
23 interacting with agencies to continually improve services
24 to the people of the United States.
